Special Catholic Schools Week/ Capital Campaign Insert Inside!

From Fr. John —

A special thank you to Teresa Klecker for her many years of service to our parish community. Her final day is the end of the week. Her empathy and special skills in welcoming people have been deeply appreciated. We will miss her and wish her the very best in her new endeavors.

In consultation with the Parish Personnel Committee and Finance Council we have tweaked our job descriptions and are looking to hire a new part time communication secretary. Please note the information to be found elsewhere in the bulletin if you, or anyone you know, might be interested.

I enjoy reading a variety of blogs on the internet. One is written by Archbishop Timothy Dolan, the Archbishop of New York. I have read a number of books by Archbishop Dolan and always come away inspired. He calls his blog, "The Gospel in the Digital Age." At Christmas time he published the following (I hope he doesn't mind my sharing it with you in this forum.)

His Christmas card from 2008 had brought good news: he had landed a very prestigious and high-paying job as a geologist – the profession he cherished – at a mining and exploration company in Montana. I was so happy for him, a friend since high school. He had explained in his card that the job was three weeks at a time in a very isolated area of the mountains, then a week back home in Illinois with his wife and three children. He regretted being away, but he and his wife had agreed this career opportunity was well worth it.

Then came this year's Christmas card with the news he had quit that job! Was it the money? Hardly, the card explained, since the salary was exceptional. Lack of challenge? Just the opposite, the news went on, as he really enjoyed the work. Why, then, had he quit?

Listen to this: "I missed my wife and kids and I missed Sunday Mass. Up in the mountains at this site, we were over a hundred miles from the nearest Catholic Church, so I could only go to Mass one Sunday a month, when I was home. The job – as much as I loved it – was ruining my marriage, my family, and my faith. It had to go!"

Talk about an inspirational Christmas card! The power, the meaning, the beauty, the necessity of Sunday Mass. . . . Just ask my friend. Anybody fifty or older can remember when faithful attendance at Sunday Mass was the norm for all Catholics. To miss Sunday Eucharist, unless you were sick, was unheard of. To be a "practicing Catholic" meant you were at Mass every Sunday. Over 75% of Catholics went to Mass every Sunday.

That should still be the case. . . but, sadly, it is not. Now, the studies tell us, only one-third of us go weekly.

If you want your faith to wither up and die, quit going to Sunday Mass. As the body will die without food, the soul will expire without nourishment. That sustenance comes from the Sunday Eucharist.

Next week, I will continue this column in which Archbishop Dolan lists (and refutes!) some of the reasons we give for not going to weekly Mass.

On a personal note, I will be on vacation from Thursday of this week through February 4. I will be visiting friends and classmates on the east coast.

SACRED HEART NOTES

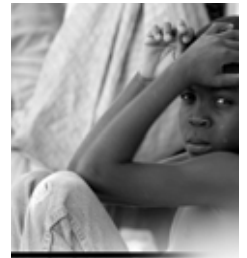

Baptisms

Clara Mae Wippenfurth, daughter of Joel & Casandra

We pray God's blessings on Clara and her family.

The Catholic University of America has initiated a nine-day Novena for the people of Haiti. Bishop Quinn is asking the people of the Diocese of Winona to participate in the Novena.

Novena Prayer for the People of Haiti

All powerful and all-loving God of mercy, Look kindly on the people of Haiti in their suffering. Ease their burdens and make their faith strong so that they may always have confidence and trust in your care. Help them face the difficulties of this tragedy of nature with courage. Bring their dead into your eternal rest and comfort those who mourn them. Bring their wounded and all those who suffer into your healing presence and strengthen those who serve them. And, finally, O God, bring us all an abiding sense of your care and compassion that we may respond with generous hearts, open hands and a renewed sense of solidarity with all your children, especially those in greatest need. You are our all-merciful God, forever and ever. Amen.

Crisis Resource Center —

Dear Sacred Heart Parishioners:

On behalf of the Crisis Resource Center of Steele County, I would like to thank you for your generous donation of wonderful Christmas presents. Each year our clients are thrilled when they come to pick up their gifts and many are overwhelmed at your generosity. A special thanks goes to Tami-Seykora-Blum for her dedication and hard work delivering the gifts to our office for distribution.

Last year we directly helped 838 individuals who were affected by domestic abuse and/or sexual violence through individual and group services. The Crisis Resource Center relies on the generosity of people and businesses who understand and support the work that we do with victims of domestic and sexual violence.

Thank you for your kindness, and for thinking of the Crisis Resource Center.

Sincerely,
 Sara Colby
 Executive Director

Stewardship Reflection

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
 January 24, 2010

There exists in our parish community a diversity of unique gifts. God has provided us with these gifts in order to advance His Kingdom. Our sisters and brothers in other Christian denominations have also been blessed with unique gifts that are being used for the same purpose. This week, the Annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity comes to a close. We pray that throughout the year all Christians would be good stewards of their relationships, seeking to understand each other, being always patient and humble, and listening to one another, so that the Body of Christ may be truly united.

Help us Connect the World with God's Word!

Today we will hold the Collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign. This Collection funds media projects that spread the Good News through the Internet, radio, TV and print media. These projects evangelize, nourish the faithful, foster community and grant easy, direct access to thousands of Catholic resources. Help connect the world with God's Word! Support the Catholic Communication Campaign in today's Collection.

FAMILY LIFE

Marriage Moment . . .

Martin Luther King, Jr. spoke about equality between the races. In marriage we call this mutuality. Although spouses may take on different tasks and roles, your value is equal. Is there any area of your marriage you want to be more equal (chores, parenting, income, affection)? Ask.

Parenting Pointer . . .

Teach your child to apologize. Not sure HOW? Try this formula: I'm sorry that I _____. I'll try not to do it again. Then consider if there is any way to make amends (repair what you broke, compliment someone you gossiped about, etc.)

Inspirational Note for the week

Never be in a hurry; do everything quietly and in a calm spirit. Do not lose your inner peace for anything whatsoever, even if your whole world seems upset.

Semester Update – Dana Petricka, FOCUS missionary

Thank you Sacred Heart parish for your generous support of my mission with FOCUS (The Fellowship of Catholic University Students) at Eastern Illinois University. Recently, I was blessed to attend the FOCUS National Made for More Conference in Orlando, Florida with nearly 4,000 college students from throughout the nation. Our FOCUS team here at EIU took 16 college students and young adults on the 20 hour bus trip down to Orlando. The conference was a huge success, as our students now have a renewed zeal and knowledge of the Catholic faith. During the conference, we had two students go to confession for the first time in over ten years, one student attend their first adoration, and two students who are now discerning the priesthood and religious life! God's graces were definitely flowing through those in attendance of this year's FOCUS National Conference. Please keep the students at EIU in your prayers as they stand as a witness to the Catholic faith on the college campus. Thank you again for all your support and prayers! God Bless!
